

Learn How to Be a Gripping Speaker and a Magnetic Networker

in One Evening
...Guaranteed!

*“It was clear that each and every person left with incredibly useful information that will stay with us forever...
By far the best value for money!” ...Sara Roberts*

“Amazing!!! Well worth the money and more. Everyone who networks needs to do this!” ...Lisa Mahle

“Public Speaking and Personal Contact Skills for Entrepreneurs” is a four-hour, highly dynamic and powerful workshop to help you improve your public speaking and personal contact skills as a business professional.

- Learn a simple and fail-proof secret to grabbing and holding attention as a speaker or presenter.
- Engage any new contact into a conversation that will help them remember you above all others.
- Avoid the one BIGGEST mistake that almost everyone makes when meeting a prospect or potential business contact.

This is a highly charged, no-bull and interactive session. You will be coached while speaking in front of the group and engaging your fellow participants in a safe, fun and supportive environment.

Register at www.lowellworkshops.com

Thursday, January 14, 2010
6:00 PM to 10:00 PM

Only 12 seats available per session
$79.00

Willis College of Business and Technology
85 O'Connor Street